The First Year on Campus Learning Carnivale brings together undergraduate and postgraduate first year on campus students with Learning Development. Faculty staff and senior students to discuss, learn, teach and celebrate over two days during the mid session break.

The Learning Carnivale program includes:

Sessions with faculty staff and students speaking about their faculty’s views on:

1. group work
2. reading and writing in my faculty
3. plagiarism
4. critical analysis and argument... and more...

Follow-on 'how to' workshops with lots of hands on activities and opportunities for feedback and prizes.

Ongoing provision of 'just in time' information on report writing, essay writing, critical analysis, synopsis and abstract writing, and more over the full academic year.

Limber up your body and soul sessions:

1. drum, dance, juggle, throw...
2. quick keep fit routines for everyone, anywhere...

To Register: Send an email with your name, student number & the degree that you are enrolled in to learning-carnivale@uow.edu.au